

Notices where those named were killed in the air-raids of May 1942 at Cowes and East Cowes

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS

Saturday, May 9, 1942

Page 1

DEATHS

ABROOK. – In May, by enemy action, Joan Abrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Abrook, of Ryde-road Cottage, Whippingham, aged 5.

BARTLETT – KEAT. – In loving memory of our dear daughter, son-in-law and grandson, killed by enemy action during April. A grief too deep for words. – From Mum and Dad, brothers and sisters.

CLARK (Gladys Maisie). – In April, by enemy action. - Mr. Clark and Mrs. Weeks (sister) express their sincere thanks to doctors, hospital staff, and all kind friends for kindness and help give (sic) in their sad bereavement, also for beautiful floral tributes. Please accept this as the only intimation.

DEWEY. – In loving memory of my darling Herb, taken so suddenly from me by enemy action. So kind, loving, and devoted (always). – No mother could have had so much love and kindness, which makes this bitter blow so cruel. His love will always be treasured in my memory, he was my all. God has taken him so that he shall suffer no more from this cruel war. – From his broken-hearted mother and sweetheart, Phyl.

Saturday, May 16, 1942

Page 1

DEATHS

ABROOK. – In May, by enemy action, Evelyn Francis Abrook, dearly-beloved wife of Sapper W. Abrook, of 2 Ryde-road Cottage, Whippingham, aged 26. – The family wish to thank all who sent flowers and letters of sympathy.

BARNES. – In ever-loving memory of our darling Floss, aged 32, and Arthur, aged 38, killed by enemy action in May. – From their broken-hearted Mum, Dad, Eve, and Alf.

We will not murmur nor complain

Against the chastening rod;

For in this hour of grief and pain

We lean upon our God.

– Mr. and Mrs. C. Scrase and family desire to express their sincere thanks to the Rev. W.J. and Mrs. Crewe and all kind relatives and friends for messages of sympathy and beautiful flowers. Please accept this, the only intimation.

BARNES. – In loving memory of our dear Arthur and Flossie, taken away from us so suddenly. So kind and devoted always. - From mother, brothers, and sisters.

BURCHELL. – In May, 1942, by enemy action, Isabella Elizabeth, wife of Sydney Frank Burchell, of Comrie, Ward-avenue, Cowes.

CHIVERTON. – In May, by enemy action, Mary, Vera, John, Pat, Paul, and Jean. – The relatives thank the Council and all persons who so kindly helped in any way. Please accept this, the only intimation.

COLE. – In May, 1942, by enemy action, George Henry Cole, C.C., and his wife, Elizabeth, of Crathie, Baring-road, Cowes.

COOK. – In May, by enemy action, Capt. H.J. Cook, aged 76; also Mary Hannah Cook, aged 72, of East Cowes.

COSH. – In loving memory of dear mother, sister, and nephew, taken from us in May by enemy action. – Mr. and Mrs. Cosh wish to thank all kind friends for their sympathy, help, and floral tributes. Please accept this as the only intimation.

Thinking of them to-day,

Thinking of them and the past.

Seeing them in memories

Just as we saw them last.

COSTER. – In loving memory of my darling wife and children, killed by enemy action in

May. – Her broken-hearted husband Will.
COSTER. – In loving memory of Sallie, Marian, and Peter, killed by enemy action in May. – From Ken, Grace, and Joyce.

DOWNER. – In loving memory of our dear ones, Mum, brother Sid, and Grannie, taken so suddenly from us by enemy action. - Mrs.
and Mr. H. Page wish to thank all kind friends for their sympathy, help, and floral tributes.
Please accept this as the only intimation.

They said good-bye to no one,
They said farewell to none;
The gates of heaven were opened,
And a gentle Voice said "Come."

EGGLETON. – In loving memory of dear
Gordon, killed by enemy action in May. –
From his loving brothers and sisters, Roy, Kath, Pam, and Jack, Alice, Reg, and Daphne.

Beautiful memories, a smiling face,
A broken link we can never replace;
Dearly loved, and living yet
In the hearts of those who loved you

best.

EGGLETON. – With treasured memories of my dear brother, killed by enemy action in
May. – never forgotten by his loving sister
Vera, also Eric and Pat.

EGGLETON. – In ever-loving memory of my dear son Gordon, who was killed by enemy action in May. – From his ever-sorrowing mother.

He left us with memories which for ever we will treasure,

Of those happy days when we were together;

No kinder heart has ever lived,
His thoughts of others were to give.

FELLOWS. – In May, very suddenly, Harold, the devoted and dearly-loved husband of Hilda Fellows, passed onward into the higher life; aged 53 years. Only goodnight beloved.
– The widow and family of the late Mr.
Harold Fellows and Mr. W.H. Black, wish to thank relations and friends for letters and messages of sympathy, also most beautiful flowers. They also wish to thank the A.R.P. wardens and all others who in any way helped in the work of rescue. Their deepest gratitude is also tendered to the doctors, matron, nursing, and domestic staff at Osborne House, whose kindness and attention have been in-measurable. Will all please accept this, the only intimation.

FLEMING. – In May, by enemy action, Kate
E. Fleming, aged 69, beloved wife of A.E.
Fleming, of Hazelgrove, Pallance-road, Cowes. – Mr. Fleming, son, and daughters would like to thank all friends for letters of sympathy and lovely floral tributes. Please accept this as the only intimation.

GALTON. – In May, by enemy action, Robert Frank Galton, aged 41; Florence Elizabeth Galton, aged 40; Maureen Jean Galton, aged 10, of East Cowes.

GUSTAR. – In ever-loving memory of my brother, Frank Gustar, his wife May, and his two little children, Sally and Allen, who were killed through enemy action in May. Safe in the Arms of our Lord. – Fred, Anne, Ernie.

HANN (Alice Frances). – In May, while on duty during enemy action. - Her sons and daughters send their most sincere thanks to all concerned and gratefully acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy and beautiful flowers.

HARVEY. – In loving memory of my darling husband Frank, taken so suddenly from me by enemy action in May. So kind, loving, and devoted always. – From his broken-hearted wife Ray.

HARVEY. – Frank William Harvey, the dearly-loved and only son of Mr. and Mrs. F.
Harvey, of 45 Yarborough-road, East Cowes, killed by enemy action in May, aged 23 years.
– Mr. and Mrs. F. Harvey wish to thank all kind friends for messages of sympathy and floral tributes, also all workmates and members of the Home Guard of J.S. White's who attended the funeral. Please accept this,
the only intimation.

Beautiful memories, a smiling face,
A broken link we can never replace;
Dearly loved, and living yet
In the hearts of those who loved you
best.

HUGHES. – In memory of our darling daughter Gwen, killed by enemy action in May. Safe in the arms of Jesus. – From her broken-hearted Mummie and Daddie.

HUGHES. – In May, by enemy action, Gwen Hughes, of Cowes, aged 4.

INCE. – In May, by enemy action, George Henry, beloved husband of Doll and father of Mary, aged 43.

INCE. – In May, by enemy action, George Henry, beloved son of Mrs. Ince and the late Mr. J. Ince. - From his loving mother, brothers, and sisters.

INCE-MARSHALL. – In memory of our brothers George and Char, taken from us through enemy action. - From Alice, Arch, and children.

Two of the best in every way

We will keep in our memories for ever and a day.

JEANS. – In May, by enemy action, Marjorie Winifred (née Maker) and Anne Elizabeth Jeans, of East Cowes.

KERSEY-BARTON. – In loving memory of our dear daughter, son-in-law, and grandson, killed by enemy action during May. – From mother, dad, brother, and sister.

Not now, but in the coming years,

It may be in the better land,

We'll read the meaning of our tears,

And then, ah then, we'll understand.

KERSEY. – In loving memory of dear Ted, Ruby, and Raymond, taken from us so suddenly. – George, Lizzie, and family, of Lancashire.

Across the sea of life love live,

Yesterday, to-day, and for ever.

KERSEY. – In loving memory of dear Ted, Ruby, and Raymond, of East Cowes, taken away from us so suddenly by enemy action. Loved always. – Sis, Edd, and Margaret.

KERSEY. – In treasured remembrance of dear Ted, Ruby, and Raymond, killed by enemy action. Never forgotten. – Jean, Bert, and children, of Bournemouth.

LAILER. – In May, by enemy action, Mrs. Laidler, of 4 Netherton-road, Brockhurst, Gosport.

MAKER. – In May, by enemy action, Dora Mabel and Edward Henry Maker, of East Cowes.

MORRIS. – My dearest uncle Reg, who was killed in May. – Always his loving Betty.

As man may he fought his fight,

Proved his birth by his endeavour;

Let him sleep in solemn night,

Sleep for ever.

REEVES. – In May, by enemy action, William Reeves, of Cowes, aged 75. – Mrs. Reeves and daughter wish to thank all friends for kind messages and letters of sympathy, and for flowers sent. Please accept this as the only intimation.

SYKES. – In May, by enemy action, George Henry, beloved husband of Jessie Sykes, of Pretoria, Castle-street, East Cowes, aged 69.

TUTTON-HUGHES. – In ever-loving memory of Mr. Tutton and his little granddaughter Gwennie, killed by enemy action in May. – Always to be remembered by their friends opposite, Maisie and Fred, and little Maureen, Brian, and Michael, Gwennie's little pals.

Asleep in God's garden of roses,

Away from this world of strife.

TUTTON. – In May, by enemy action, Arthur John Tutton, of Cowes, aged 62. – Mrs. Tutton and Mrs. Hughes are very grateful to the brave men of the rescue squad for their heroic services.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of dear mother, of Arctic-road, killed by enemy action in May, aged 84. – From Dearie Grace and grandson Denis.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of dear Bill, Lou, and Betty, of Arctic-road, killed by enemy action in May. – From George, Grace, and Denis.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of our beloved Gran, of Arctic-road, killed by enemy action, aged 84. – From Les and Doll.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of Uncle bill,

Auntie Lou, and Betty, of Arctic-road, killed by enemy action in May. – From Les and Doll.

WHEELER. – In May, by enemy action, Emily Mary Wheeler, of St. Vaast, 49 Yarborough-road, East Cowes.

WINSOR. – In May, by enemy action, Albert, beloved husband of Bertha Winsor, of 17 Victoria-road, East Cowes.

Saturday, May 23, 1942

Page 1

DEATHS

DEACON. – In loving memory of George Frederick, Lillian Lucy, Jean Margaret, killed by enemy action in May. – Mr. and Mrs. Goff wish to express their sincere thanks to all kind friends for letters of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes. Please accept this as the only intimation.

DEACON. – In loving memory of George, Lucy, and Jean, killed by enemy action in May. – From nan and uncle Fred, East Cowes.

GLASS. – In May, by enemy action, William Ernest Glass, of Swindon and East Cowes, aged 27.

HODGE. – In May, 1942, by enemy action, Herbert Louis Hodge, of 55 Yarborough-road, East Cowes, aged 48. From his sorrowing brothers and sisters-in-law. – Also Ernest Glass, aged 27 years, of Swindon, by enemy action. – Loved by all who knew him.

HODGE. – In May 1942, by enemy action, Herbert Louis Hodge, the dearly-beloved husband of Eva Hodge, of 55 Yarborough-road, East Cowes, aged 48. – From his sorrowing wife and daughter Maisie.

No kinder heart has ever lived,

His thoughts of others were to give.

– The widow and family of the late Mr. Herbert L. Hodge wish to thank friends for their kind letters of sympathy; also Dr. Martin and matron, sister, and nurses of St. James's Hospital for their kind attention. Kindly accept this the only intimation. Letters are too numerous to answer.

MARSHALL. – In loving memory of my beloved husband Char, killed by enemy action in May. – From his loving wife and kiddies, with thanks to everyone for their kindness and help.

MOUNCHER. – In May, by enemy action, Emma Jane Moucher, of 200 Upper Mill Hill-road, Cowes, aged 56.

RUSSELL. – In May, 1942, by enemy action, Madeline Amy Russell and her devoted husband Samuel Harry, of Bembridge-villas, Yarborough-road, East Cowes, both aged 53. – From their sorrowing brothers and sisters.

Resting where no shadows fall,

In perfect peace they await us all.

RUSSELL. – In May, 1942, Samuel Harry and his wife Madeline Amy, taken so suddenly from us by enemy action. Missing you both, mother and father. Treasured memories of you. – Joan and Jack.

RUSSELL. – In May, 1942, by enemy action, Samuel Harry RUSSELL and his wife, Madeline Amy Russell, of Yarborough-road, East Cowes, both aged 53. – Dell, Perce, and Audrey.

They left us with memories which for ever we will treasure.

Of those happy days when we were together;

No kinder hearts have ever lived,

Their thoughts of others were to give.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of my beloved daughter Louie and son Will, and grand-child Betty, killed in May by enemy action. – From her broken-hearted mother.

Though their smile has gone for ever.

And their voices we cannot hear.

We shall never lose sweet memories

Of the ones we loved so dear.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of our dear sister Louie, Will, and niece Betty, killed in May by enemy action. – From her loving brother Ern, sister Annie, and cousin Freda.

They live with us in memory still,

Not just to-day, but always live.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of Louie, Will, and Betty, killed in May by enemy action. –

From her loving sisters and brothers-in-law, and nieces, and baby Barry.

Jesus calls us o'er the tumult
Of our life's tempestuous sea.

VARNEY. – In loving memory of Mrs. Varney, aged 84, killed by enemy action in May.
Peace perfect peace. – From Mrs Ward and family.

WHITE. – In ever-loving memory of our dear son Fred, killed by enemy action in May, aged 24. – From Mum and Dad.

God takes our loved ones from our homes.

But never from our hearts.

– Mr. and Mrs. White wish to thank the doctors and staff at the County Hospital, also friends for their kind letters of sympathy and floral tributes. Please accept this as the only intimation.

WHITE. – Sacred to the memory of our beloved brother Fred, aged 24, killed by enemy action during May. – From Dorothy, Charlie, Vera, and Bob.

To His own, His well-beloved,
The Father giveth rest.

WHITE. – In loving memory of our dear brother Fred, aged 24, killed by enemy action in May. – From Eve and Harry.

The labours of a well-spent life
End in a great reward.

WHITE, F.W. – In loving memory of my darling Fred, who passed away during May, through enemy action, aged 24 years. - From his broken-hearted fiancée Evelyn. – Miss E.
Littlewood wishes to thank all her friends for their kindness and sympathy in her great loss.